

Do you wonder how the money we raise is spent? One of initiatives is to fund teacher grants. The items below are listed to help you visualize how your donation will help. They are examples from past grants as well as a few items that are on the wish list this year. We hope to be able to fund teacher requests throughout the year as they find out what they need as they navigate these unprecedented times.

Help students with the basics:

- $25 can buy 2 small computer mice for our youngest learners
- $50 can help a teacher purchase supplementary reading materials
- $100 can buy an e-reader for student use
- $350 can buy bins with activities for students to use to reinforce lessons that have been taught
- $500 can send a child to Camp Unakite (a Science, Technology, Engineering and Math summer program) for a one-week session
- $1,000 can buy alternative seating for a classroom to help young students stay focused
- $250 can send one student to Camp Unakite for a week

Help students with learning enrichment and reinforcement activities:

- $300 can buy art supplies for a pottery lesson
- $1,500 can buy art display cases for use in a simulated marketplace
- $500 can buy supplies for a special middle school social studies unit
- $1,200 can buy STEM software for mapping
- $1,000 can buy a set of ukuleles that students can borrow from the library
- $750 can buy two tablets for the MCHS Math department
- $1,000 can buy materials to teach students to calm down and focus
- $500 can pay for an author visit to our schools
- $11,500 can fund Camp Unakite for a week

Help students grow with physical activities

- $1,000 can buy a classroom set of pedometers and the software to help students set goals
- $8,000 can finish the climbing wall project at WYES
- $5,000 can buy outdoor exercise equipment for WWMS students (and the community!)

Honor a teacher

You may designate a teacher to honor with your donation. We will recognize the teachers through their schools with a special presentation as well as announcing them in the newspaper and on our web site. We encourage you to recognize one of our teachers this year!

Please return completed form and enclosed check to: MCEF, PO Box 1277, Madison, VA 22727 or you can contribute online at our website: www.madisonedfoundation.org. Thank you for your generous support.
